SarahN_12, Netflix "Find Your Voice" Competition

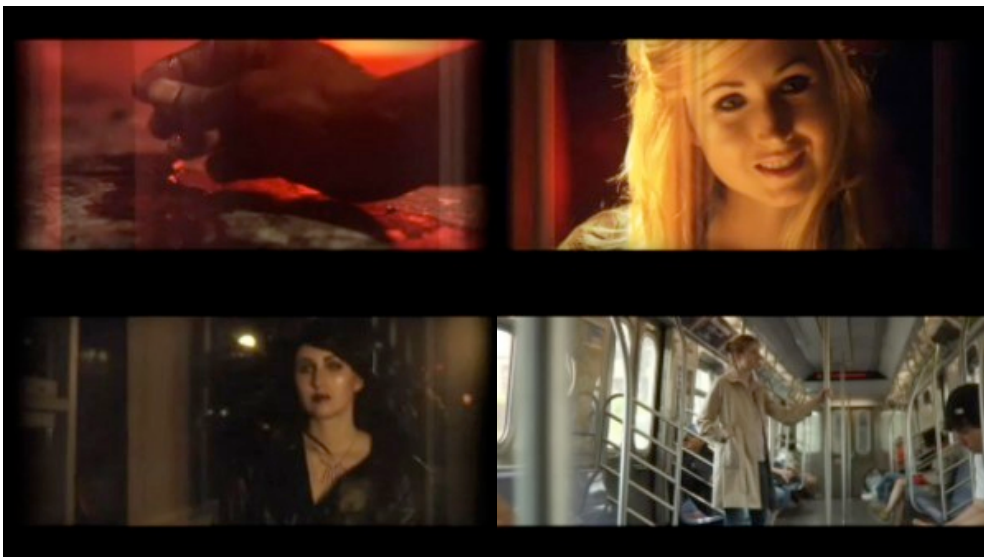

Two-time Tribeca Winner Director Sasie Sealy is currently a finalist in the Netflix competition "Find Your Voice", with her first feature film project: SarahN_12.

This feature film contest gathered close to 2000 feature film scripts to retain only 10 semi-finalists, and will offer $150,000 cash prize, as well as a significant post-production support.

Aside from a wonderful director, Sasie is also a friend, and we were more than happy to produce her competition trailer for "Sarah_N12".

Shot in various locations of Williamsburg, NY, by cinematographer Brian Rigney Hubbard, you will be able to see it on June 5th on the Netflix website.

And of course you should vote for it then!
